Introduction of Guests

Department Commander – Daniel J. Seehafer

Gave greetings to the Detachment, noticing that this convention has been uplifting with energy and positivity. The Detachment and Squadrons has given a lot to this effort with the programs and support that the Sons of the American Legion have contributed to the Legion Family. He concluded that the Detachment keep up the passion in these efforts.

Commander Kollmansberger presented a gift to Commander Seehafer

Department S.A.L. Chairman-Jeff Puddy (075) (Legion member, Squadron member and AL Rider)

He has been honored to serve the Detachment as the Americanism committee chairman over the last year. Over the last 8 years with all the committee level he has served on over the three organizations he has decided to take a break for at least one year. Mr. Puddy did give a report at the Legion pertaining to the Sons of the American Legion and their activities. He noted that his info to the committee was under stated in the amount of Josh Dogs at 100 and he was corrected that 231 were distributed at no cost to families thru the deployments.
