The positive "can do" attitude of the Sons of The American Legion shines through on the Consolidated Reports. Is your squadron shining? To be included in the judging for detachment awards the consolidated reports must be submitted by June 1st 2011, to Sons of The American Legion PO Box 388 Portage WI 53901.

Please contact me if you have any questions on the consolidated report.

What is the Squadron Consolidated Report?

The Consolidate Squadron Report Form is:

- an annual, total report of your Squadron donations, service and volunteer hours
- required to maintain your charter

- required to compete for awards at the Detachment Convention
- required to compete for awards at the National Convention
- required for the Detachment to submit our reports to congress to maintain our charter
- submitted to Detachment Headquarters by June 1st
- a easy to use three part carbon form to mail or use the online version.

Compile your squadron's accomplishments and activities, donations and volunteer hours from June of 2010 to the end of May 2011; enter the data on the Squadron Consolidated Report form.

After you complete the online Squadron Consolidated Report, click the SUBMIT button, you will be able to then download and print a PDF file of your report.

It all adds up on the Squadron Consolidated Report Form.
