Sons of The American Legion Detachment of Wisconsin

Detachment Officers

Detachment Information

Squadron Information

The ALEI is open to the Sons and I strongly recommend this training for each Sons of The American Legion member, please share this with your Squadron.

Michael Lawler, Detachment Adjutant

The Third District and Lafayette County Council are teaming up on December 11, 2010 to conduct the American Legion Extension Institute course training. The information contained in this program is invaluable to those who seek leadership positions throughout the American Legion. Officers at every level of The American Legion should consider this course as a basic level of instruction providing the knowledge needed to move forward.

While we understand that not everyone enjoys schoolwork and taking tests, we are confident you will find this course enjoyable and rewarding. Mike Rohan will be your facilitators and has extensive knowledge in the history and organization of The American Legion. Mike has completed the American Legion Extension Institute, The National American Legion College and other State and National Courses focusing on Leadership and Development. "I plan to make this course both exciting and fun for all of those who attend. And, I operate on the no child left behind rule."
